-Child Marriage Prohibition –
27th March 2023

The extension activity program on Child Marriage Prohibition was held on Monday 27th March 2023 at 09.30 a.m in Kolindre (village), Taluka Ajara, District Kolhapur by the Department of Sociology of Tukaram Krishnaji Kolekar Arts and Commerce College, Nesari. The program was attended by a diverse group of people including school-aged children, college students, teachers, parents and community members.

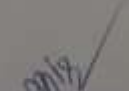

The program began with an introduction by the program coordinator Dr. Vijay Musai, who outlined the importance of preventing child marriage and the need for everyone's participation to make a difference. This was followed by a presentation by an expert Prof. J. K. Sasane on the issue. Prof. J. K. Sasane expressed his views on the effects of child marriage on society, the causes of child marriage, and the steps that can be taken to prevent it.

The lecture was followed by a discussion in which the participants were encouraged to share their views and experiences. The participants discussed on "how can be taken to prevent child marriage in their community."

The program concluded with a question-and-answer session, during which the expert Prof. J. K. Sasane answered questions from the participants. The program coordinator Dr. Vijay Musai then thanked the participants for their participation and encouraged them to spread the message of child marriage prevention.

The villagers, College students, Sarpanch, Gram Sevak, Village Panchayat Members, Teachers and College Principal Dr. S.B. Bhambhar's support and encouragement to make the program successful. The program came to a close with enthusiasm.
