

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE DEPARTMENT

Establishment : June, 1995

The prime object behind this commerce education is to develop the commercial knowledge and give exposure to hidden skills of the students for the development of the self and the nation. Under this department B.Com course is three years integrated degree. This course consists of the knowledge of the marketing, accounting and costing, economics, insurance, management, industrial management etc. the department offered Advanced Accountancy as optional subject for final year students. It helps in the development of career of the students by continuous assessment. This is one of the departments in the college campus which is having the strength of 987 students (2020-21). Out of which 77% students are girls.

OBJECTIVES

1. To make acquaint of commerce education in the society.
2. To develop the skill, Knowledge and potential of students in respect of commerce education.
3. To provide practical and professional knowledge to the students for better employment opportunities in the life.
4. To provide practical and professional knowledge to the students for better employment opportunities in the life
5. To generate entrepreneurs through commerce education for building the nation.

DEPARTMENT OF ACCOUNTANCY

INTRODUCTION:

T.K.KOLEKAR ARTS AND COMMERCE COLLEGE NESARI is established in June 1995 by Shikshan Samiti K Nesari. The Department of Accountancy is introduced as a Major subject of commerce streams since establishment of college.

FACULTY:

Name	Designation	Qualification	Nature of Appointment
Dr.S.E.Patil	Associate Professor	M.Com,M.Phil,Ph.D.	Permanent

FACILITIES:

Sufficient reference books and text books are available in library of college and also provided to students Inlibnet, Journals, Periodicals, News papers, Wife, Study Rooms, Xeroxing, Audio Visual aids etc.

ACTIVITIES:

We are organizing co-curricular and extra-curricular student centered activities regularly. Every year we are conducting 4-5 guest lectures by inviting resources person from other colleges. Study tour and industrial visit at different industrial places are also organizing by Accountancy Department. As a part of study we are Conducting seminar for B Com III student by assigning various topics on Accountancy and Auditing field.