

Department of English

About the Department:

Since its inception in 1997, the department of English has been fostering critical thinking and motivating students to edify their disposition. The Department provides intensive mentoring to our students both in and beyond the classroom in a wide variety of forums. In pursuit of providing academic and scholastic ambience, the Department has always motivated debates, discussions, participatory learning, collaborative teaching, project-based learning activities and others. The Department helps the students develop academic distinction together with life skills and abilities required in the professional world. We are proud followers of the footsteps of our beloved founder Tukaramji Kolekar, Ex.MLA and will continue to surge ahead with lasting commitment.

Vision:

To fulfill the regional development needs as a center of cost-effective quality education for socially and economically underprivileged and backward students.
